

INSPIRATION BOOK

by LAMETT

Lamett[®]
Passion for floors!

We believe that floors are female

beautiful and elegant on the outside, precious and sophisticated on the inside...

... to be handled with care ...

*That's why we, from Lamett,
handle with care:
our products,
our customers
our services,
our planet...*

PREFACE

A house should be a home in particular, a place to unwind and to enjoy life. A personal touch to your interior is therefore very important. With this book , we would like to inspire you, presenting you a broad variety of projects. Pictures say more than words. Be surprised by our projects. Throughout the book you may also find tips, presented by our interior expert Eliza and our sales manager Louis.

This book is a tool for inspiration. To show you how a Lamett floor looks in a house. Yet we do not recommend to base your decision on a picture, but rather pay a visit to a Lamett dealer, where you can see the floor. Or have a sample delivered at home.

A list with all the dealers in your area and more info on our samples, you find on our website www.lamett.eu.

“The floor determines the atmosphere”

“Welcome, please feel free to have a look around. Would you like a cup of coffee?” At Lamett, I am responsible for the showroom. I receive customers, listen to their requirements and offer them advice regarding our range of products. The floor is key to determining the atmosphere in your interior. You live with it every day! It gives me great satisfaction to be able to offer good advice on this subject.

In my years working for Lamett, I have discovered just how versatile wood is. I whole world has opened up for me: production processes, new processing techniques, finishing parquet... there is so much to tell. Even after the floor has been fitted, we remain involved and always take the time to answer your questions.

Creating trends

Do we follow trends at Lamett? We create the trends! I pay a lot of visits to architects, which allows me to learn new things. Based on this knowledge, we often add new collections, or change or remove old ones. We keep evolving. We think that's important, and it makes my work much more interesting.

Sometimes, people come to us with a specific problem. I really enjoy contributing ideas. Perhaps a thirty centimetre plank is a good choice? Or our newest vinyl collection, that is barely distinguishable from wood? It is nice to be able to offer customers an ideal, trendy, tailor made solution.

In my blog articles, that is exactly what I want to do: provide advice about our collection and answer various questions about floors. So, would you like to know something about parquet, vinyl or laminate? Are you having trouble choosing a floor? Then feel free to send me a message via [\[contact\]](#), and I will deal with your question in my next blog article.

“An empty room is the story that must be told, and you are the author”

A house is so much more than a pile of bricks and some insulation. Our home is our starting and finishing point. A place where we unwind, where we feel, smell and experience. The place where we meet people, relax and dream. It makes sense that many among us share the hobby or passion to cosy up that pile of bricks. Building a cocoon, a warm nest for yourself and all the people around you, demands some effort, but gives you back so much. We grow up there, laugh, discuss. The structure and design of your house are key to how you live those moments. Every time and again I think it's a fantastic and great job to create a customer's perfect interior on the basis of their needs and story.

Ever since the boyfriend and I renovated our house ourselves, interior design has really become a passion. I started an interior blog, took an evening course in interior design, and I gained a lot of hands-on experience on our own site. Gradually, my passion became my job. Giving interior advice, setting up showrooms, designing exhibition stands, writing inspiring blogs and articles for various websites and magazines. Yes, I love my job! Also for Lamett I provide a bunch of interior tips, and every third Saturday of the month you can find me at their showroom for free interior advice.

Are you faced with an interior dilemma? Give me a call. I would love to help and recreate your house into a warm home!

COURCHEVEL

TIP FROM LOUIS

My favourite wood floor, Courchevel Villa! A clean-lined plank with few knots, made of the best wood! The use of extra wide planks gives grandeur and cache to any home!

COLLECTION: Matisse Pure
LOCATION: Madrid, Spain

TIP FROM ELIZA

In this apartment wood was also used on the wall behind the TV and not only on the floor. This gives a warm feel to the home. Note that when you opt for this both parquet floors must be the same. If this is not the case the room can soon appear quite cluttered.

FARM

24

TIP FROM ELIZA

The residents of this home have a fondness of old furniture, and chose a Farm floor to preserve the same look. You then have an authentic look that is the perfect match.

TIP FROM ELIZA

Kaffee Renée in Kortrijk is a cosy coffee bar. Here one particularly wanted to create warmth by working with different woods. The rustic Farm collection gives the new business buckets of authenticity!

FARM

COLLECTION: Farm Antique
LOCATION: Maskit, Israel

You can find this jewel in the capital city of Israel, a charming clothing store with the Farm Antique. This rustic parquet floor fully comes into its own between the luxurious Maskit attire.

BARN

72

TIP FROM ELIZA

Installing parquet floor in a bathroom is not recommended. If you still want to do this there is an easy solution. The residents of this home installed tiling in the damp places with parquet all around. In so doing they created a feeling of warmth.

TIP FROM ELIZA

This trendy ice-cream parlour is concealed in the heart of Madrid. The vivid colours in contrast with the Bar Crystal give a surprising and lively effect.
